1. Changes are predicted in Bulgaria. The Bulgarians are said to be trying to hasten the progress of normalization of relations with Yugoslavia, whereas the Yugoslavs are in no hurry. Source says that Yugoslavia would be glad to see an aggravation of the problems confronting the Bulgarians, and asserts that some changes will be necessary before the Yugoslavs can be very cordial in their relations with the Bulgarians.
2. The changes in question would involve the elimination of some people in Bulgaria who are very anti-Yugoslav; otherwise no friendship will be possible. Source remarks that the whole government and the Communist Party in Bulgaria have not changed much since the "bad Stalin days".
